Re: United States v. Fruman, S1 19 Cr. 725 (JPO)

Dear Judge Oetken:

The Government respectfully writes in response to questions posed by the Court during the sentencing proceeding for Lev Parnas, with respect to whether Igor Fruman had been released from prison. The Government has conferred with the Bureau of Prisons, and understands that Mr. Fruman reported to the Bureau of Prisons for service of his 366-day sentence on March 13, 2022, was transferred to crisis furlough on May 3, 2022, and then transferred to home incarceration beginning May 25, 2022. The latter two assignments were pursuant to the CARES Act. The Government is available to confer with the Bureau of Prisons should the Court have any further questions.

Respectfully submitted,

DAMIAN WILLIAMS
United States Attorney for the Southern District of New York
